QUEEN OF PRINCE RUPERT OFFICIALLY RETIRED FROM BC FERRIES' FLEET

VICTORIA – After 43 years of valuable service, the Queen of Prince Rupert was officially retired today from BC Ferries' fleet at a special ceremony in Prince Rupert attended by over 200 members of the public.

The arrival of the brand new Northern Expedition, which will enter service on the Port Hardy – Prince Rupert route next month, allows for the retirement of the Queen of Prince Rupert.

Dawn of a New Era

BC Ferries' Northern Expedition, Northern Adventure and the Queen of Prince Rupert in Prince Rupert Harbour on April 19, 2009. This is the only time that all three vessels were in the same location together.
